

MEAL TIME at the Beulah Camp Youth Institute is a mammoth operation, with approximately 1,400 hungry persons to be fed three times a day. The noon meal Thursday a typical menu, required 180 frying chickens 200 pounds of potatoes 35 gallons of corn, 35 gallons of apricots 140 loaves of bread and 1,100 individual cakes. Iced tea and coffee are available throughout the day and the amount consumed at one meal could not be estimated by the dining hall officials. At left a part of the campers are shown lined up for lunch. The huge tabernacle where worship services are held is in background. The boy at right apparently could use another chicken leg as he watches his companion polish off his lunch. Meals are served cafeteria style, with two serving lines, and the large number are served in about an hour.

Measure to Hike Jobless Pay Signed

Governor Completes Action on All Measures Passed by General Assembly

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton left here today to visit Illinois National Guard units in field training after completing action on the mountain of more than 1,300 bills approved by the 1957 General Assembly.

Among the last bills approved by the governor were measures to increase state unemployment compensation benefits, ban "ambulance chasing," and tighten up the conflict of interest law barring state officials from holding state contracts.

Stratton also vetoed bills to permit merchants to keep 2 per cent of the sales and use taxes they collect to cover their costs of collection and approved bills to extend the sales and use taxes to repair services.

The governor will visit National Guard units training at Camp McCoy, Wis., today, and at Camp Ripley, Minn., Saturday.

The unemployment compensation bill boosts benefits from $28 a week to $30 for a person with no dependents, from $31 to $33 for a person with a dependent spouse, $31 to $36 for a person with one dependent child, $34 to $39 for a person with two dependent children, $37 to $42 for a person with three dependent children, and $40 to $45 for a person with four or more dependent children.

The ban on ambulance chasing prohibits soliciting of law business by persons other than lawyers and carries penalties of a fine up to $500 and six months in jail. It does not apply to lawyers since they are covered by bar association ethics.

The new conflict of interest law spells out specifically what contracts state officials may not hold, and prescribes limits for the amount of interest they and their families may hold in a corporation before the corporation becomes ineligible to hold contracts.

The bill was presented after Rep. Charles W. Clabaugh (R-Champaign) was charged with a violation of the present law which says only that state officials may not deal "directly or indirectly" in state contracts.

The bills to extend the sales and use taxes to repair services mean the taxes will now be levied on such services as having your watch or automobile fixed.

The bills to let merchants keep 2 per cent of the taxes they collect to reimburse them for expenses involved in collection were backed by some local chambers of commerce. But Stratton said they would cost the state 11 million dollars over the next two years and the state could not afford such a revenue loss.

Stratton also vetoed a new attempt to exempt trade-in values from the use tax. He vetoed a similar bill early in the legislative session.

Also vetoed was a bill to create county school survey committees in each county and a state advisory commission on school reorganization to work on the problem of further consolidation of school districts. The bill was sponsored by the School Problems Commission.

Golconda Man Badly Burned By Picnic Fire

GOLCONDA, Ill. — Charles Billington, 38-year-old Golconda businessman, is in Memorial Hospital in Metropolis with first degree burns and a shattered left hand suffered at a picnic Wednesday evening.

Billington, owner of Billington Lumber Co., and Billington Truck Service, a long distance hauling outfit, had gone to Dixon Springs State Park with his wife and several other couples for a picnic.

As they were preparing the supper, Billington attempted to build up a charcoal fire by pouring lighting fluid on it. As he did the container of fluid exploded, tearing open his left thumb, igniting his clothing and engulfing him in flame.

Billington started to run to his car, but his brother, Norman Billington threw him to the ground. The brother and other men smothered the flames and stripped off the burning garments.

Both arms and both legs were badly burned and his eyebrows were singed. His condition is not critical.

Vivien Leigh's Outburst Stuns House of Lords

LONDON (AP)—Actress Vivien Leigh went on stage Thursday night in a play in which she gets her tongue cut out. But she made sure it was put to good use beforehand.

Miss Leigh, wife of Sir Laurence Olivier, had staged a one-woman protest against the closure of an ancient London theater in the House of Lords a few hours before she went on stage in Shakespeare's "Titus Andronicus."

Her outburst stunned the staid chamber as it had never been stunned before.

Miss Leigh, who had been sitting in the distinguished visitors' box—in the seat occupied last year by Nikita Khrushchev—suddenly leaped to her feet as one noble lord finished a speech and another was rising to have his say.

"My lords, I want to protest against the Saint James' theater being demolished," she cried in ringing tones.

All was confusion. Sir Brian Horrocks, whose official title is gentleman usher of the black rod (sergeant at arms) tapped her shoulder and said sternly, "Now you must go."

Miss Leigh went. The legislators, after a buzz of conversation, resumed their debate. None but members of the house is permitted to speak in the House of Lords.

The lords decided to tear down the theater anyway. Because it is an "obsolete Victorian, inconvenient, uncomfortable playhouse."

President Signs Housing Bill, But Shows Concern

Southern Bloc Agrees to Civil Rights Vote

Will Permit Action In the Senate By Middle of Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern opponents today agreed to permit a showdown vote "the middle of next week" in the first round of the Senate battle over the civil rights bill.

The decision was reached in a 50-minute conference in the office of Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the southern bloc waging an all-out fight against President Eisenhower's four-point program. The huddle preceded the fifth day of Senate debate on the highly controversial issue.

The exact day will be worked out later with Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and Republican Leader William F. Knowland.

Knowland meanwhile told reporters after a conference with President Eisenhower today that there is no justification for charging that the White House is wavering by some northern Democrats in its support of the bill.

He said the administration's civil rights recommendations still stand. But he added that the White House has "never taken the position that there should be no clarifying amendments."

Russell told newsmen he would prefer the vote to be Wednesday or Thursday but said it might be as early as Tuesday. He said the Dixie senators would not agree to an earlier vote.

The bill provides for (1) a bipartisan commission to investigate alleged violations of voting rights and study "legal developments which constitute a denial" of civil rights; (2) a new assistant attorney general to head a civil rights division in the Justice Department; (3) authority for the government to seek injunctions or other civil court action against conspiracies to deprive persons of their rights; and (4) the same authority to halt violations or threatened violations of Negro voting rights.

Increased Fees for Driver License, Titles Now in Effect

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter today called motorists' attention to the fact that increases in fees for drivers licenses, original certificates of title or duplicates, and automobile junking certificates are now in effect.

Governor William G. Stratton signed the measures, passed by the recent General Assembly, July 9 and they became effective Wednesday.

The driver license fee has been increased from $1.00 to $3.00. The additional $2.00 will be paid into a special fund to help finance high school driver training programs throughout the state.

The fee for an original certificate of title or a duplicate was increased from 50 cents to $1.00. Automobile junking certificates, for which there had previously been no charge, will now cost $1.00.

Secretary Carpenter also said that applications for any of the above which were received by his office prior to the close of business on July 5 will be processed at the old fees. Applicants who forwarded the $3.00 driver license fee prior to that date will receive a refund of $2.00.

Zhukov, Vassilievski Rivals

Report Dissension in Russian Army

LONDON (AP)—Dissension in the top leadership of the Red army was rumored today in informed diplomatic quarters.

Differences were reported to have emerged between Marshal Georgi Zhukov and Marshal Alexander Vassilievski, the "brain" behind Russia's wartime victories against Germany.

Vassilievski, Zhukov's deputy in the Ministry of Defense, was termed a potential rival to Zhukov in the struggle for power. He is also considered an advocate of a tougher policy towards the West.

There was no official confirmation of these reports which reached London from behind the Iron Curtain today.

The reports suggested that the current differences may lead to the quiet disappearance from the Red army leadership of Vassilievski in the near future.

The reports said Vassilievski failed to support the latest denunciation of the V. M. Molotov trio by party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Marshal Zhukov.

Other leading marshals of the Red army have rallied ostentatiously behind Khrushchev and Zhukov, including Marshal Ivan Koniev, himself a former rival to Zhukov.

The indications were that the majority of the generals so far stand behind Zhukov, who thus is in virtual control of the Red army at present—now the most powerful single factor in keeping the Khrushchev regime in power.

However, these developments have thrown new light on the Red army which thus far was considered as wholly united.

Son Calls His Mother

Girard Family Appeals to Eisenhower

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—The family of GI William S. Girard today based its last hope on a direct appeal to President Eisenhower to prevent the young soldier from being turned over to a Japanese court for trial.

Girard, meanwhile, in a telephone call to his brother, Louis, and his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Girard, sought to ease their fears by indicating he was not worried by the U. S. Supreme Court decision.

The high court Thursday unanimously upheld the Eisenhower administration's decision to surrender Girard to Japanese authorities for trial in the fatal shooting of a Japanese woman.

In a telephone call Thursday night, the 21-year-old newlywed soldier sought to calm his widowed mother's fears by saying "he thought he would get a fair trial in Japanese courts.

"He seemed very calm," the 45-year-old Mrs. Girard said after talking with her son. "He didn't seem worried a bit."

Mrs. Girard said her son indicated he thought he might get greater leniency from a Japanese court than from a U. S. Army court-martial, perhaps even a suspended sentence.

Girard's brother, Louis, 28, an Ottawa garage mechanic, gave William "the first definite word" of the Supreme Court decision in the telephone talk.

"Bill expected the decision," Louis said.

The brother informed Girard the family had appealed directly to the

No Indication If Gov't Will Cut Down Payments

Law Permits FHA
To Reduce Minimum Requirements

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower signed the $1,990,000,000 housing bill today even though he said it has "a number of serious defects."

The new law permits the Federal Housing Administration to slash to an all-time low the minimum down-payment requirements on new and old homes under its mortgage insurance program.

It also authorizes $1,990,000,000 in additional mortgage money, federal loans for college housing, and federal grants for urban renewal and slum clearance.

The President gave no indication when or whether the administration will cut down payments under the new authority.

The President said he is "most concerned" that the act authorizes more home-building aids than he requested.

He said "painstaking efforts" had been made by the administration to balance the needs of federal programs while keeping over-all spending to a minimum. The $1,990,000,000 in new obligations authority authorized in the bill, he said, more than doubles his request.

Urges Limit To Use

He said he has instructed federal agencies to limit use of the new authority to "amounts consistent with the over-all budget program." Since there is no requirement to obligate the amounts in this fiscal year, he said, there would be "no serious setback" to budget efforts and he thus could sign the bill.

The President also found "disappointing" a provision authorizing the FHA and the Veterans Administration to set "reasonable" discounts on some housing loans. This was written into the bill over the administration's objections.

Discounts occur when a lender gives a builder less than the face amount of the mortgage but gets back principal and interest on the basis of the full amount. This is a system for allowing the lender higher interest payments than otherwise permitted under government-backed mortgages.

The President called for repeal of the bill's increase in the price floor on mortgages purchased by

FBI and Supreme Court

Of all the recent decisions by the Supreme Court on individual rights, the one of most concern to the government is the Jencks case ruling giving defendants in criminal and espionage cases certain access to F. B. I. files.

The court's decision said that where defense counsel is seeking to attack the credibility of witnesses it may search the files looking for discrepancies between information supplied to the F. B. I.
and sworn testimony in the courtroom.

Mindful of the F. B. I.'s long-standing insistence that much of its police work be hampered if it were forced to disclose confidential sources of information, methods of procedure and the like,
the Supreme Court said the government would have to take its choice between showing the files or not prosecuting.

Reports from the capital say the F. B. I. is threatening to drop out of such cases altogether rather than permit examination of its files by defendants.

The administration is meantime advancing legislation designed to give trial judges the authority to decide in secret what part if any of F. B. I. reports should be allowed to the defense. Without action on some such measures, a good share of the government's work in criminal prosecution seems to stand in danger.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Ambassador Bohlen Predicted
Deep Stirring Inside Russia;
U. S. Has Loafed On Ike's
Policy Of People-To-People Friendship; This Policy Is Best Guarantee Against War.

WASHINGTON. — Some weeks before he left Moscow, Ambassador Chip Bohlen reported deep-rooted churning inside Russia. He connected this with industry and domestic economy, predicted that because of this inner turmoil there was no danger of war with Russia for many years to come.

In another report, Bohlen expressed the conviction that the Russian people had become so sold on peace that it would take intensive propaganda for their leaders in the Kremlin to convert them to war. He also expressed the view that the leaders in the Kremlin were convinced modern war would be so suicidal to both sides that no one would win;
therefore Russia's future lay in a peaceful though vigorous struggle to control men's minds.

These reports had already been used by Harold Stassen as a guidepost for his arms talks, were one reason Stassen has believed the Russians are ready for a genuine arms agreement.

The reports are now being reviewed further in the light of the Kremlin crisis. Net conclusions:
That deep trouble is stirring inside Russia; that the Russian people as well as the satellites must be given the alternative of more freedom or else strict Stalinist suppression; that the more-freedom school has won out.

HELPING HIS SECRETARY
Congressman John J. Rhodes
(R., Ariz.) has run afoul of an unwritten rule of the House of Representatives whereby Congressmen refrain from criticizing the pork barrel projects of fellow members, especially when they are from different states.

Rhodes took the unusual step of writing a circular letter to members of the House Interior committee, asking them to vote against a $32,220,000 irrigation project in the district of Rep. O. C.
Fisher (D., Tex.).

The Arizona lawmaker called Fisher's bill a "thinly disguised municipal water project" for the city of San Angelo, and claimed it was not a proper assignment for the Bureau of Reclamation.

Naturally this did not please Congressman Fisher. When word of Rhodes' letter reached him, he did some quiet checking, then sent out a letter of his own.

"An examination reveals," wrote the congressman from Texas, "that Mr. Rhodes' allegations are largely a rehash of testimony given by the sole witness who has ever expressed any opposition to our project—a Mr. Calvin McGowan, whose brother is Mr. Rhodes' secretary."

"The McGowan opposition was based upon the fact that some of the land which will be taken for the lake site is owned by the Mc-Gowan family."

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE FRIENDSHIP

U. S. diplomats have been stung so often, either by McCarthy investigations or by the changeable Kremlin, that they are extremely hesitant about expressing public optimism about our future relations with Russia.

However, if, as seems almost certain, the current Kremlin ferment stems from a stirring of the Russian people, then this presents a heaven-sent opportunity to the United States.

The opportunity is to win closer friendship with the Russian people.

As this writer has frequently emphasized, and as President Eisenhower pointed out at the Geneva Summit Conference, the best guarantee against war is friendship among people.

For years the United States has not worried about war with England, France, or Canada for the simple reason that our peoples have too much common sense, plus friendship, to make war.
They understand each other. But the hurdle of different political systems, different language, plus the iron curtain, has made friendship with the Russian people difficult.

Likewise the Soviet system of dictatorship was built for speedy decisions for war or peace without consulting the people. With no free press, no free churches, no free radio, there were no brakes on the Kremlin's ability to declare war anytime it wished.

Today, however, there is a stirring inside Russia—and a golden opportunity for an intensive campaign for people-to-people friendship.

AMERICAN IRON CURTAIN

When Nikita Khrushchev proposed on CBS that we lower the American iron curtain, the only man who took him up vigorously was Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, who got slightly slapped for his pains by John Foster Dulles.

Since then six steel experts and six health experts from the U. S.
A. and the U. S. S. R. will visit each other's country. That, however, is not people-to-people friendship. A total of twenty-four people visiting two countries of 168,000,000 and 200,000,000 respectively is not going to win many friends. It's going to be like dropping a pebble into the ocean. It won't cause a ripple.

The United States, in my opinion, has a political-economic cultural system that we should show off to the world. Yet the State Department seems afraid to let people come over here to see it.

Perhaps Senator Johnson should conduct an investigation of the reasons why the State Department

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Our feelings and God's way are not always the same. Some people believe that their "feelings" represent their better selves and therefore are on the level of spiritual truth.

Many of our feelings even on a high level are tinged with too much self-interest. Occasionally a bit of hatred or jealousy or some other sin colors our better feelings and we cannot accurately pass spiritual judgment on our actions.

We must turn to God and His teachings for our spiritual values. God alone can weigh our thoughts and actions. Unless we study His words and pray fervently we cannot expect our feelings to be very closely related to God's way. Even then we must depend on God for establishing our values and our way of life.

For Buick Owners Only

If you own an earlier Buick than our 1957 product, you're probably reluctant to part with it — and who can blame you?

After all — regardless of year or model — there's nothing like a Buick to set you a cut above the ordinary run of mortals — make you feel master of all you survey.

But listen. As wonderful as your present Buick is — we can name at least six good reasons why you should look into a 1957 Buick now.

Six good reasons why you should try this dream car to drive — today.

Read 'em — and leap!

6 Reasons To See Your Buick Dealer Today

1. Today's INSTANT Dynaflo™ — Response?
When! Smoothness? Wow! Never in history such a sweet sense of control, security, safety for yourself, your family, everyone else on the road!

2. Brilliant V8 Power on Tap — This big engine — completely new in 1957 — blends plenty of eager energy with silky silence. World's most advanced combination of displacement, compression, bore-stroke ratio, nodal-point balance!

3. Zestful New "Nested" Ride — Take Buick's traditional torque-tube, coil-cushioned ride — cradle it to the lowest center-of-gravity in Buick annals — and brother! You never had it so smooth.
4. Buick's One and Only Safety-Buzzer™ — What's the safest pace you want to drive at?
Whatever it is, turn a dial till that figure appears in a "window." If you exceed that pace, the buzz-z-z-z tells you. Simple. Thoughtful. A great safety advance.

5. Unique Ball-Joint Handling and New Brak- ing — Your steering is amazingly easy. Your cornering is amazingly deft. Your braking stays on the level. (And Buick's powerful new brakes dig in for straighter, swifter, safer stops!)

6. Smooth Low-Sweep Styling — Clean, crisp, classic lines in the finest Buick tradition — beautiful to look at and live with. Up to 3.4 inches lower, yet more room inside. Including legroom for the folks in the middle!

P.S. You'll like today's Buick prices — and your Buick dealer's high trade-in allowances.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster.
Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special. Safety-Buzzer standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Summer Heat Blankets Nation

By United Press

A summer heat wave, made more oppressive by high humidity, blanketed most of the nation today, and weathermen foresaw no cooling relief.

The only areas with near normal temperatures were the Pacific Northwest, the Upper Michigan peninsula and extreme northern New England.

Uncomfortable sleeping temperatures in the 70s and 80s extended across most of the nation's midlands from the Rockies to the Appalachians. Nighttime readings in the 90s baked the southern plateau and interior southern California.

Small diamonds have been found in meteorites.

Calendar Of Meetings

The Daughters of Ruth Sunday school class of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church will hold a picnic at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, at Dixon Springs. All members are urged to attend with their families.

MAN OF THE WEEK In Carrier Mills

By BILL MELTON

George Henson, who just recently retired after fifty years as a miner, has the unusual record of having worked the half century for the same coal company or the companies that preceded it.

And during the fifty years Mr. Henson has found time to engage in church, fraternal, civic and business affairs of his native Carrier Mills community.

When he was 18 years of age George Henson went to work driving a mule in a coal mine and now, at the age of 68, he has retired, making his retirement effective with the miner's vacation, the early part of July.

For the past 16 years he was an oiler in the tippie at the Sahara Washer.

He has received a personal letter from Frank H. Woods, president of Sahara Coal Company, as follows:

"Dear George: It is always an honor to write one of our loyal employees who has reached the point where he has made the decision to retire from active work and spend his time henceforth with family and friends. It is very rare, however, that I have the privilege of saying 'Hail and Farewell' to a man who has devoted fifty years of his life to Sahara and the companies which preceded it. That is a record of devoted service which few of us have the privilege to equal.

"As a company we are proud to think that in its operations over fifty years it has been a company with which a man like you would choose to be associated. During all those years you have also been a prominent and influential citizen of your own community and have accepted the responsibility of public office and served as a director of the bank.

"We know you will continue as a citizen to make a real contribution to the Carrier Mills community. I want you to know that all of us here at Sahara wish you well."

Signed
Frank H. Woods,
President, Sahara
Coal Company

Williamson County Historical Society Ends Third Year

The Williamson County Historical society, organized in September, 1954, ended its third year Sunday, July 7, at 2:30 p. m. at the Marion Carnegie Library, Marion, in a very interesting meeting.

Miss Ruth Grant, Marion, presided as president in the absence of Atty. Snyder Herrin, Herrin, and Mrs. Bertha Otey, Marion, filled the place as secretary in the absence of regular secretary, Miss Pearl Roberts of Johnston City.

Vice President H. L. Motsinger proposed that a reminiscence folder be printed of the three years' activities of the society. This met with great approval and will be accomplished as soon as a committee is arranged by Mr. Herrin.

Ed Stollar introduced Mrs. Fred (Grace) Wykes of Benton, who gave an excellent address on "Evolution of Architecture of American Homes in which she emphasized Capt. John Smith in 1605 to 1909, Colonial days, cave forms of homes and fireplaces built of stones, plank floors, stone and stick chimneys, then followed with log cabins. She stressed Franklin stoves, larders, cheese rooms, New York, Philadelphia and Chicago architecture, and stated that Thomas Jefferson was the father of great art in America.

In 1792 the White House at Washington was Post Colonial, and silk knickerbockers were nice architectural costumes. A righteous spirit makes the house not the home, she said. Mr. and Mrs. Bill King and daughter of Creve Coeur are visiting her sisters, Wavel and Yvonne Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams and daughter of Lexington, Ky., have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Francis Lightfoot, Mr. and Mrs. Herman McGrath and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitney, and family of Carrier Mills.

Rev. and Mrs. Louie Stricklin have had as their guests their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Stricklin, and daughter of Peoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Waltz of Kankakee spent their vacation with relatives in Ledford and Harrisburg.

Production in U.S. Hits Record Of $414 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. production of goods and services hit a record of $414,300,000,000 last year, about 6 per cent higher than the 1956 figure.

But the Commerce Department said half the increase was due to inflation. The other half stemmed from a greater physical amount of goods and services sold in the market.

All industries except agriculture shared in the increase, the department said in a report issued Thursday night.

In other developments on the economic front:

—The Commerce and Labor departments reported the number of employed persons in June jumped to 66,500,000, a record for the month and 1,300,000 more than in May. But unemployment also rose by 600,000 over May to 3,370,000. The rush of school-age youngsters into the summer job market raised both figures.

—The Commerce Department reported fewer dwellings were for rent in the first three months of 1957 than in the same period last year. Rental vacancies totaled 1.8 per cent of all housing during the first quarter of this year compared to 2.2 per cent a year ago. The number of houses for sale in the period remained about the same—around 5 per cent.

The report on the gross national product said sales and earnings of manufacturing corporations "continued at a high level" in the first three months of 1957, setting a first-quarter record.

There report on the gross national product said rises were recorded last year for national income, personal disposable income, business investment, consumer purchases and saving, and wages and salaries.

Net interest payments jumped about 10 per cent to about 12 billion dollars. Part of this increase was due to higher interest rates.

For a long, long minute, she sat with her head turned away from this grave, stern man. She gazed out at the river, at the blackness which marked the trees upon the far shore, at the faint glow from the water, at the lights which marked the channel and at other lights which were boats.

That night of the dance . . .

Oh, she knew how it must have looked to everyone. To Kurt, Nan's red dress, and Ben's gleaming white suit—his arms around the dark girl's slenderness, her head back, his lips on hers—it had made a tableau, of course.

The floodlights had flashed on for only a brief five seconds and then were off again. But that five-second glimpse would have been long enough for everyone to see—for Kurt to see . . .

Coming back from the little girl's room, Valley had been shocked at what she found in Kurt's face. That was the devil with judging people of a provincial community by the standards rigidly in effect in the world of ultrasophistication! It had not occurred to Valley that Kurt would never, for one second, or for five seconds, think that Nan could do anything wrong or dishonest.

At the big table behind their small one, the people of the Ross party were all in a huddle, whispering, stealing looks at Kurt. And following the code in such matters, he had got up, his face stern, his fists clenched at his sides, he had threatened his way through the steps—Valley could remember the way his white shoes had slipped down each one—he had gone out upon the pier, and had knocked Ben Laurent, white suit and all, into the water. He hadn't wanted to touch the boy, but the revelation of those lights made it a thing which he had to do . . .

And, the next morning, Ben had stopped Valley when she came out of church. "May I have a word with you, Miss Valley?"

He'd held the door of his car open for her, and without making a scene she could not refuse his offer of a lift. People were watching them, and after the events of last night . . .

So she did get in, arranged her skirts and asked him what he wanted.

"I wanted to talk to you," he said, turning the car into the gravel road which led between the hills, away from town and the river. "Because of what happened last night, I deserve a chance to talk to you."

She smoothed her fingertips across her purse. "Well—talk, then," she'd said.

"First thing to be established," he said after a minute, "is that of course, you're in love with Kurt Lillard."

Her lips had fallen apart, and her eyes had widened. "Well, really!" she'd gasped.

"To save time," he'd urged, "let's cut out the nonessentials, shall we? You are in love with Kurt Lillard, and though you are much prettier than Nan, I thought you should know that you won't get him."

Now she couldn't have said one word!

"You should believe me," he went on relentlessly, "because I think you know that if a man loves a pretty woman, another pretty woman can take him away. But—and this is what I think you don't know—if a man falls madly in love with a somewhat plain woman, other women don't have a chance with him."

VALLEY glanced at Garde sharply and thought about his question. "What other psychologist . . . ?"

And still she didn't answer him. She crossed her knees and kicked her foot so the crisp full skirts belled up and fell back.

Amazing Orioles Move Into First Division; Phillies Take Second in National L.

By United Press
Typographical error, my eye!
That's really the Baltimore Orioles right up there in the first division today, and it's the first time they have ever been that high this late in the season since they entered the American League.

The amazing Orioles reached the lofty region of fourth place Thursday night by sweeping a two-night double-header from the fading Indians by the score of 5-4 and 5-4 (no typo, either), the first game going 11 innings.

Pilot Paul Richards, who makes the type moves no other manager will dare, gave a Houdini-like exhibition in an all-out effort to crash the first division.

He yanked starter Ray Moore in the seventh inning of the first game even though the score was tied and he had two strikes on Roger Maris. Ken Lehman completed the strikeout but he needed help from George Zuverink in the last of the 11th after the Orioles had scored two runs in the top of the frame on singles by Gus Tri-andos and Jim Busby.

Zuverink Appears Twice

Then, in the nightcap, Richard pulled out Bill Wight in the third inning even though Baltimore had built a 5-0 lead off Bob Lemon. He again called in Zuverink, who gained his eighth victory, and when the hard-working Zuverink weakened in the eighth, Richards led with his ace, Billy Loes.

All that masterminding paid off in the Orioles' 14th victory in their last 20 games. They are now a half-game ahead of both Cleveland and Detroit, and only three games behind the third-place Red Sox, who defeated the Tigers Thursday, 9-7. The Yankees padded their league lead to 3 1/2 games when Mickey Mantle's 23rd home run in the 11th inning produced a 3-2 triumph over Kansas City, and Washington rallied for two runs in the ninth to beat the second-place White Sox, 6-5.

The Phillies took over second place in the National League by capturing a two-night twin bill from the Cubs, winning 11-inning opener, 1-0, and the finale, 3-1. The Giants defeated the Cardinals, 1-0; Brooklyn edged Cincinnati, 5-4, in a game marked by fist fights, and Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh, 7-2.

Sleater's Errors Costly
Pinch-hitter Gene Stephens drove in the winning run in the 10th inning for the Red Sox after Tiger reliever Lou Sleater caused his own downfall with a pair of errors on the same play. Stephens, batting for winning pitcher Ike Delock, singled home Frank Malone and later in the frame, Jim Fiersall drove in another run with a sacrifice fly. Billy Consolo and Ray Boone hit homers.

Mantle's homer came at the expense of reliever Tom Morgan and it gave the Yankees their 12th victory over the Athletics in as many games this season. Yogi Berra also homered for New York. Art Ditmar was the winning pitcher in relief of Bob Turley.

Rocky Bridges' single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning off Paul LaPalme was the blow that gave the Senators an uphill win over the White Sox. Jim Landis and Jim Rivera had given Chicago an early lead with home runs. Bud Byerly was the winner.

Granny Hamner's 11th-inning single helped the Phils to their victory in the opener after Bob Rush of the Cubs had held them hitless until the eighth. In the nightcap, Jack Sanford had a perfect game going until Dale Long singled with one out in the eighth.

Sanford wound up with a four-hitter and his 11th win of the year. Joe Lonnett homered for Philadelphia.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli and battery-mate Valmy Thomas were the whole story in the Giants' victory over the Cards. Antonelli hurled a five-hitter and Thomas homered in the sixth inning off Lindy McDaniel, as the Cardinals' lead in the National League was whittled to two games.

The Dodgers came from behind to defeat the Redlegs when Duke Snider hit his second home run of the game with one out in the seventh inning off Tom Aker.

Snider's second homer came shortly after a flare-up between Cincy pitcher Raul Sanchez and Dodger infielder Junior Gilliam that precipitated an even livelier fist fight between Charley Neal and Don Hoak. The whole fuss started when Gilliam felt Sanchez had thrown a pitch too close to him.

Johnny Logan's two-run homer featured a four-run fourth inning rally that brought the Braves their victory over the Pirates. Bob Trowbridge went all the way for Milwaukee although tagged for 12 hits, while Bob Friend suffered his 10th setback.

Harrisburg Junior
Legion Defeats
Fairfield, 12-4

Harrisburg defeated Fairfield 12-4 in a Junior Legion league game at Fairfield Thursday evening, the tilt going 13 innings.

With the score knotted at 4-4, Harrisburg exploded for eight runs in the top of the 13th inning to take the decision.

John Wathen, who paced the Harrisburg attack, had a homer with two mates on base in the decisive inning. Wathen also had a triple and single.

Others taking part in the Harrisburg 11-hit barrage were Aldridge, Maynard and Hassett, two hits each, King and Nelson one each.

Jerry King and Ronnie Maynard combined in hurling Harrisburg to victory. King went 10 innings, allowing four hits and four runs. Maynard pitched the final three innings, allowing one hit and no runs.

The district tourney begins Sunday with Harrisburg playing Fairfield at 1 p. m., followed by Norris City vs. Albion. All district tournament games will be played at Carmi. The district winner advances to division play at E. St. Louis.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Summertime means vacation time to millions of American motorists. What a number of these drivers fail to realize is that they would enjoy themselves much more if they thoroughly planned their vacations in advance.

Unnecessary driving, and stops to check maps, can easily be avoided if the trip is well organized. The amazing thing is that many motorists will enjoy their trips even before the first mile is registered on their speedometer by going about their planning with the person or persons with whom they intend to travel.

When making plans make sure you do not attempt to drive so many miles in a day that the latter part of the driving will find you exhausted and incapable of safely driving a motor vehicle. A gruelling road schedule can easily end in disaster.

The formula for a safe trip doesn't cost a thing. Plan your journey ahead of time—allow plenty of time for leisurely driving. Stay alert every minute you are on the road. Heed the rules of the road and the dictates of common sense and courtesy.

Gomes is Favored Over Lulu Perez In Bout Tonight

CLEVELAND (AP)—Lightweight Harold Gomes of Providence, R. I., is a 7-5 favorite to spoil the comeback of little Lulu Perez of Brooklyn tonight in a 10-round televised bout.

The bout will be Gomes' first one away from the East Coast and only his second on TV. The fast-climbing lightweight owns a record of 39 victories in 42 bouts, including 20 knockouts.

Perez will be after his third straight comeback victory, after overcoming a blood deficiency, which marred his fighting efforts during the past two years.

Fighting as a featherweight, Perez lost to Sandy Saddler in a title bout two years ago. His career went into a tailspin until doctors noted the blood deficiency.

Clear Way for Postal Pay Vote

WASHINGTON — A petition signed by a majority of members removed the last barrier today to House action on a proposed $546 a year pay boost for postal workers.

The petition discharged the administration-opposed bill from the House Rules Committee and cleared the way for a House vote a week from Monday.

Rep. T. A. Thompson (D-La.), sponsor of the petition, said House passage seems assured since more than half of the members who signed the petition took a stand in support of the bill.

To bill cleared the House Post Office Committee by a lopsided vote but had been stymied in the Rules Committee.

The bill is opposed by President Eisenhower and the administration on the grounds it would set the pace for a general pay raise and would aggravate the problem of inflation.

TV, Husband Go

CHICAGO — Things will be quiet for at least a month at the home of Mrs. Audrey Corbino. Her husband, Frank, agreed in divorce court Thursday to leave home for 30 days during which time Mrs. Corbino will turn off the TV set. His wife sued for divorce on grounds he had the television set on all the time. "I'm just dying for a rest from TV," she said.

Honeymooners Spend Most of Time in Lake

CARBONDALE, Ill. (U.P.) — Two young counselors at Southern Illinois University's Little Grassy Lake camp have found they must spend most of their spare time in the lake. They are newlyweds, Wayne and Janet Williams, and they are hunting Janet's wedding ring which she lost while swimming.

Eisenhower Signs Housing Measure

The Federal National Mortgage Assn. He said the provision would "discourage private mortgage lending and hence place a greater share of the financing burden upon the government."

Dispute Over Effective Date
There was no indication of how soon the authorized reductions in down-payments might be put into effect. There was reported to be a dispute within the administration over that. Eisenhower himself may have to make the final decision.

The new law allows cuts in down - payments ranging from 60 per cent on a $10,000 house to 25 per cent on a house appraised at $20,000. This would allow non-veterans and veterans alike to buy a $10,000 home under the FHA program with only $300 cash, or little more than the $200 required of veterans under the GI housing program.

FHA already has drafted plans for reducing down - payments. Home builders have clamored for immediate action, but some administration officials were reported to have opposed a reduction now on grounds that it might stimulate more inflationary credit.

350,000 Take Part in Illinois CD Operation

ILLINOIS CIVIL DEFENSE HEADQUARTERS — This story is not for real. But might be.

More than 350,000 Civil Defense Corps members in Illinois pretended today that a war of atomic and hydrogen bombs was going on.

They took part in the play-acting of Operation Alert 1957 — the nation's fourth annual exercise in what should be done by its citizens under nuclear attack.

Most of us will not be involved in the test. But the make-believe itself was frightening enough.

Across the nation, 125 cities were supposed to have been hit by bombs equivalent in energy to millions of tons of TNT.

In Illinois, the likely target cities were Chicago, East St. Louis, Rock Island, Rockford, Decatur, Peoria and Springfield.

At 11 a. m. c. d. t. a nationwide alert was sounded signifying that the mythical attack planes were within two hours' striking distance. Sirens in hundreds of Illinois cities went off with a steady blast of three to five minutes in the standard alert signal. However, no one in the general population was expected to take any personal action.

The nationwide alert reached the state CD communication center at Champaign-Urbana and was relayed to nine key cities throughout the state. The information was funneled through the state police radio network to every community.

Warnings also were flashed to Urbana and Park Forest, a suburb south of Chicago.

Gov. William G. Stratton at Springfield declared a civil defense emergency for the two-day test.

Deputy Killed as Wife Watches

DE SOTO, Mo. (U.P.) — Chief Deputy Sheriff James H. Marsden, 69, of Jefferson County was shot and killed Thursday night as his wife watched.

Officers are seeking a man Marsden had stopped for leaving a service station without paying the $3.50 cost of gasoline. State police said Audry Gilliam, 22, St. Louis, is wanted for questioning in the shooting.

Marsden was taking his wife who had been ill, to obtain medicine when he learned that state police were seeking a man who fled a service station on Mo. 21 without paying for gas.

The deputy sheriff radioed that he saw the described car and would stop it. Mrs. Marsden told officers her husband scuffled with the man in an attempt to put him in the Marsden car. She said there was a shot and her husband fell.
